'Dirt Music' review: Sexy Australian drama wastes its shot ...

For those who like their romance movies filled with unnecessary mysteries, murdered dogs, poached lobsters and the ghosts of deceased little girls, "Dirt Music" will fit the bill. All others need not apply, not even if you're into the kind of Nicholas Sparks-style drama this movie shamelessly marinates in for an interminable 105 minutes.

Dirt Music does not glamorize impaired driving: in fact, its treatment of the issue could work as a public service announcement for MADD. This film is a great way to scare anyone out of driving under the influence, which might be its most constructive contribution. It's tough to determine the audience for Dirt Music.
